

Game Day Recipes for Every Fan

Get ready to score big at your next game-day gathering with snacks that will have everyone coming back for seconds! Whether you're hosting a watch party or enjoying a casual get-together, the right snacks can make all the difference. From cheesy and spicy dips to creative twists on classic favorites, these irresistible bites will satisfy every craving. South Square Market has you covered with all the ingredients you need to impress your guests and keep the energy high as the game unfolds.

Jalapeño Popper Dip

Looking for an irresistible game-day snack? This Jalapeno Popper Dip will be gone in minutes at your next watch party. The smoky and spicy flavors blend with the melty cheese to create the perfect dip. To make it even better, scoop the dip up with veggies, baguette slices or even tortilla chips for an added salty crunch. South Square Market has everything you need to kick off your game day.

Buffalo Cauliflower Wings

Everybody knows that chicken wings are a classic game-day favorite. These Buffalo Cauliflower Wings are not only delicious, but a great vegetarian, vegan, and gluten-free alternative. Bite into the crispy, tangy florets as the game heats up on the TV. If you want to give your game day menu a twist, this is the best snack.

Everything Bagel Pigs in a Blanket

After trying this twist on classic pigs in a blanket, you'll never want to go back. These Everything Bagel Pigs in a Blanket are the ultimate family-friendly snack for game time. Prepare them ahead of time and simply warm for a quick and tasty 15-minute delight. Pick up everything you need to make this too-good-to-resist game-day snack at South Square Market.